

Nomination for GWRC Reading Administrator of the Year

Description/Overview:

Each local council of VSRA is challenged to select its “most outstanding administrator of literacy.” This award recognizes an administrator, at the school through district levels, whose commitment to literacy is exemplary and unparalleled. The GWRC Administrator of the Year Committee will review all information received, convene a selection meeting, select our local winner, and will forward the winning recipient’s application on to VSRA for consideration for the JAMES D. MULLINS LEADERSHIP AWARD awarded annually at the state conference.

VSRA JAMES D. MULLINS LEADERSHIP AWARD DESCRIPTION

The nominee is a strong advocate for reading, teachers and children; has a vision for a school or school system; consistency makes decisions based on a belief system, is creative in finding resources to support reading programs, and is a strong supporter of reading and/or VSRA or other reading-oriented organizations or groups.
